Top quotes from panellists

Luis: 'Find the most experienced person in the workshop and ask them for help and never say / know or they won't help you'

Deon: 'Work experience starts at home with your personal habits like taking out the rubbish and keeping your room clean, doing your chores'

Mark: 'No matter what subject you're doing at school, there's something in it, in one form or another, that will help you in a job outside of school'

In May 2017, there were 185,400 people aged 15 to 64 years who were employed as apprentices or trainees and were part of the Australian Apprenticeship Scheme. Of these, 81,100 people (44%) had commenced their apprenticeship or traineeship in the last 12 months. The majority of apprentices or trainees were male (83%). As in previous years, construction was the most common industry for apprentices and trainees, with 41% employed in this industry. Source: ABS, 2017.
