

Industry Live offers students top tips and stories for career success.

Industry Live – 11 Aug 2020 – 11.30am to 12.30pm AEST

Emergency and rescue services – Can you keep calm and focused in a crisis? We'll take a look at some careers on the front line of helping people in emergency situations.

Hear directly from panellists in police, ambulance, fire and defence.

Our panellists:

Emma from the Royal Australian Air Force (RAAF) – Emma is a firefighter with the RAAF and has a degree in Law and Criminology. She'll talk to us about her career as a first responder providing aircraft rescue and firefighting services both on base and on deployments to remote locations.

Matthew from Tasmania Police – Matthew is a Sergeant in helicopter operations with Tas Police working closely with Ambulance Tasmania. He'll let us know what it takes to succeed in his field and the different jobs available. He'll also share some amazing rescues he's been involved in working with Andy (below).

Andy from Ambulance Tasmania – Andy is an intensive care flight paramedic working closely with Matthew (above). He's a helicopter rescue crewman with the Tasmania Westpac Rescue Helicopter and will talk to us about what it takes to be a paramedic in emergency rescue situations.

Sandra from Tasmania Fire Service – Sandra is a fire station officer and has worked as a firefighter, as well as in the areas of recruitment, building safety and school fire safety awareness. Sandra was also the first female fire station officer in Tasmania. She'll talk to us about what it takes to get recruited into the fire service and where your career can go from there.
